And The Wine Spectator's Best of Award of Excellence Goes To San Francisco's Masa's!

Masa's, one of San Francisco's leading fine dining establishments is proud to announce that it has received Wine Spectator's 2011 Best of Award of Excellence. This prestigious award is reserved for restaurants who not only have an impressive selection of wine, but who also offer a wide price-range and exceptional cuisine pairings.

It is no wonder then that for over 20 years Masa's has been a consistent Best of Award of Excellence recipient. Indeed, Masa's wine cellar boasts a staggering 8,000 bottles —800 of which are expertly paired with Executive Chef Gregory Short's dishes by Master Sommelier Alan Murray.

So if you have ever wondered what excellence tastes like, head to Masa's and experience the delicious symphony of flavors created by exquisite contemporary French cuisine perfectly paired with exceptional wine from around the globe.
